

The Inner Witness of the Christian Faith

In as much as religion is a matter of the heart it is impossible for one person to know beyond a doubt that another is a Christian. The question is, can a man know himself whether he is a Christian? For the last quarter of a century the emphasis has been put on the eternal evidences caused by reaction of the theology of Johnathan Edwards and partly to safeguard against the over-emotional type of religion that swept the country generations ago, and partly from that indifference which has come from a decadence of the sense of sin.

There is great need to-day to give just emphasis to the witness of the inner life. The evidence of being a believer in peace of conscience, assurance of God's love, increase of faith and perseverance therein unto the end. The witness of the spirit of God to the spirit of man must after all be the ground of comfort to the individual. The possession of eternal life guarantees growth in holiness here an abundant entrance into the kingdom of heaven. No child of God is ever lost.—Rev. W. L. McEwan.

The Church of God

Every unit in the church is essential to its propagation. The church is of divine origin. Every church should be a center of social refinement and good fellowship. It is the mightiest civilizing force in the world. It is also a place for instruction, where truth opens the visions of the soul, and where the mind is easily directed from natural religion to revealed religion. God promises to meet His people in His church. Nothing can be substituted for the Gospel which is declared thru the church. All other things are inadequate, and the gospel of the Son of God alone holds the hearts of the people of the world. Hence to win, the church must have the spirit and authority of Jesus within it, for that church without the spirit and power of Christ is like a headless man.—Rev. W. B. Slutz.

Sent ABSOLUTELY FREE on receipt of postal. Write your name and address plainly

There is nothing like Asthmalene. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails.

The Rev. C. F. Wells, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmalene received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had overspoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-size bottle."

Rev. Dr. Morris Wechsler, Rabbi of the Cong. Bnai Israel,
New York, Jan. 3, 1901.

Dr. Taft Bros. Medicine Co.,

Gentlemen: Your Asthmalene is an excellent remedy for Asthma and Hay Fever, and its composition alleviates all troubles which combine with Asthma. Its success is astonishing and wonderful.

After having it carefully analyzed, we can state that Asthmalene contains no opium, morphine, chloroform or ether.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen: I write this testimonial from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene, for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with Spasmodic Asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I chanced to see your sign upon your windows on 130th street, New York. I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After using one bottle her Asthma has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. I feel that I can consistently recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease.

Yours respectfully,

O. D. PHELPS, M. D.

Dr. Taft Bros. Medicine Co.

Gentlemen: I was troubled with Asthma for 22 years. I have tried numerous remedies, but they have all failed. I ran across your advertisement and started with a trial bottle. I found relief at once. I have since purchased your full size bottle, and I am ever grateful. I have a family of four children, and for six years was unable to work. I am now in the best of health and am doing business every day. This testimony you can make such use of as you see fit.
